

PEACH: AWARD WINNING BLUES ARTIST NOW BOOKING 2014

Posted: October 3, 2013

Southern California-based singer-songwriter-guitarist PEACH is at the forefront of female-fronted blues acts performing both modern and old-time blues, with an all-star band of musicians featuring keyboardist Ken Stange (Joe Cocker); bassist Steve Nelson (Chuck Berry); drummer Gary Mallaber (Van Morrison); and guitarist Mark Sells. PEACH - a recent headliner at the Real Blues Festival in Santa Ana, Calif. - has recorded with Taj Mahal, Marty Grebb (The Buckingham), Reggie McBride (Elton John), Joey Delgado (Delgado Brothers), Garth Hudson (The Band) and Paul Barrere (Little Feat). She has co-written with Keb' Mo' and Marty Grebb. PEACH is a past Los Angeles Music Awards, Rockwired Radio Awards, All Access Magazine Music Awards, and South Bay Music Awards recipient.

Check out PEACH'S soulful, seductive live recording of "It Meant Nothin'," a song she co-wrote with well-known bluesman, Keb' Mo' that's been viewed by over 160,000 people since it posted on YouTube in June.

"PEACH is back on the stage with her high heels, one-of-a-kind stage presence, and her six string, and she's here to stay!" - ROCKWIRED

"Her voice is unique for the blues, and her original compositions and clever treatments of classic material make listening to PEACH a pleasure" SOUTHBOUND BEAT

"PEACH's kind spirit and passion make for a unique blend of Blues artist/Freddie King fan. She is rooted in what is important about music." INFLUX MAGAZINE
