

PEACH to play M15 Concert Bar & Grill

By: William Phoenix | AXS Contributor | Dec 1, 2014 | 6 days ago

Los Angeles-based singer-songwriter-guitarist PEACH & the Electric Blues Band will be a special appearance at the M15 Concert Bar & Grill in Corona, California on Sunday, December 7, 2014 at 4 p.m.

PEACH, said to be “at the forefront of female-fronted blues acts” is fresh off of a recent successful performance at WitZend. She will once again be backed by her noteworthy electric blues band which currently includes: keyboardist Ken Strange (Joe Cocker), guitarist Jamie James (Jamie James & The Kingbees and Steppenwolf), bassist Del Atkins (James Ingram and Pointer Sisters) and drummer Tom Walsh (America).

PEACH will perform a blend of both classic and modern blues music. PEACH exclaimed: “We return to Riverside County because we can feel some magic there... with the audience and this band. I recorded PEACH LIVE! there years ago and there’s definitely something in that water out there!”

She added: “When we play the blues, we no longer have “the blues”... this is the band of a lifetime. Rockin’ and yet sweet at the same time. I’m thrilled with The Electric Blues Band.”

PEACH’s musical credentials include recording tracks with such noteworthy performers as Taj Mahal, Marty Grebb (Bonnie Raitt and Leon Russell), Reggie McBride (Elton John), Joey Delgado (Delgado Brothers), Garth Hudson (The Band) and Paul Barrere (Little Feat). She has also co-written songs with such musicians such as Keb’ Mo’ and Marty Grebb. Her musical honors include Los Angeles Music Awards, Rockwired Radio Awards, All Access Magazine Music Awards, and South Bay Music Awards recipient.

Presented by The Outlaw Blues Gang, this concert will also include performances by the blues siren Sena Ehrhardt and blues-rock singer and guitarist Shannon Curfman. Tickets to this event are $5.00 if purchased prior to 5 p.m. or $15.00 after 5 p.m.
